Women's Pilgrimage to the Holy Land: Mothers, Metaphors and Models; Remembering Women in the Bible November 2-12, 2012. Women of all Christian faiths are invited to reflect on the Scriptures in places where women of the Old and New Testaments lived. Visits to Galilee, Nazareth, Jerusalem, Bethlehem and other magnificent places bring the scope of Jesus' ministry to life as you walk the roadway that Mary of Magdala took in search of healing. Follow the ancient pilgrim path near Bethany, the home of Mary and Martha, on the way to Jerusalem. Biblical scholar and guide, Carolyn Osiek, RSCJ, offers input on Scripture texts and sites. Leaders Marianne Race, CSJ, and Pat Kozak, CSJ, provide experiences of common prayer and times of quiet reflection. Contact Marianne Race at mrace@csjoseph.org or call 708-363-6728 for more information.
